ARRAIGNED ON NON-SUPPORT CHARGES

William Hendricks Pleads Not Guilty in Circuit Court And Bond is Fixed at $250

DIVORCE SUIT IS HEARD

Samuel N. Patterson is Awarded Judgment of $5,622.25 Against J. T. and E. E. Meek

Several matters were taken up in the circuit court today, including the partial evidence in a divorce suit, the filing of two new suits, and various actions on other court cases.

William Hendricks was arraigned on two charges in the criminal court one being for failing to support his wife and the other for failing to support his children. He pleaded not guilty to the charges, and bond was fixed in the sum of $250 on each charge.

The partial evidence in the divorce suit of Bertha Shane against William Shane was heard this morning, when the defendant defaulted. He was ordered to appear next Saturday, when the evidence will be concluded in the case.

In the complaint of Charles S. Winslow against James C. Griffin, et al, a suit to quiet the title of some real estate, the evidence was heard and the plaintiff was granted the title to the land as prayed in his complaint.

The suit of Charles H. Tompkins against Frank Capp and sons, a complaint on an account has been dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

The case of C. W. Duncan against James V. Young, the assignee of Orla W. Price who made an assignment in bankruptcy, was heard this morning on the plaintiffs claim against the amount alleged to be due him. The matter was taken under advisement by the court.

Samuel N. Patterson was awarded $5,622.25 judgment in the court when the defendants, John T. Meek and Elbert E. Meek, defaulted on the case in which they were defendants. The complaint was to collect on a note. The costs also were assessed by the court against the defendants.

Cecil Taseano is plaintiff in a divorce suit filed today against Joseph Taseano, the complaint alleging that the defendant abandoned the plaintiff shortly after their marriage. The complaint sets out that they were married in May 1920 and separated in September of the same year, when the defendant is alleged to have left.

The complaint also alleges that during their short married life he failed to support the plaintiff, although he was earning big money, and that he also gambled, and refused to provide a home.

Romelia E. Tevis is plaintiff in a suit against William L. Tevis and the Farmers' Trust Company of this city, the complaint being to collect on a judgment rendered by a court at a former trial. The complaint alleges that in 1904 the plaintiff was awarded $500 judgment in the Supreme court, and that it has never been paid, which with interest is said now to amount to $1300, which is the amount demanded in the suit.

The complaint alleges that the Farmers' Trust Company is administrator of the estate of John B. Tevis, who also is interested in the case, and they are named as a party to the defense.

LOW MARK FOR YEAR IS SET

Temperature Ten Above Friday Night—Colder Weather Sunday

The mercury reached a new low level Friday night for 1922, when 10 degrees was recorded here, as 12 degrees was the coldest so far this year. The record for the winter is 8 degrees which was established in December. Last year was an unusual season, as the mercury did not reach the zero mark during the entire year.

MAY NOT LIVE DUE TO INJURIES IN FALL

William Ross, Age 7, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ross, Suffering From Injury to Spine

JOINT IN NECK DISLOCATED

William Ross, age seven years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ross, living on the Jesse R. Newhouse farm five miles north of Rushville, is in a critical condition and is not expected to live as the result of a fall he suffered one week ago.

The boy was walking backwards when he fell and the back of his neck struck a brick. A joint in his neck which was dislocated in the fall, was set and it was thought that he would recover.

Friday, however, he grew worse and physicians despaired of his life. It is reported that he is suffering with inflammation of the spine and has no chance to get well. Doctors who have seen the boy are said to have disagreed to some extent over his trouble. It was at first thought he had spinal meningitis, but this is not now thought to be the case.

Mr. Ross is a tenant on the Newhouse farm.

LOCAL SCHOOL MEN ASSIST IN SURVEY

J. H. Scholl And W. E. Wagoner, City And County School Heads, to Work in Franklin County

SURVEYS IN NINE COUNTIES

J. H. Scholl, superintendent of the Rushville public schools, and W. E. Wagoner, superintendent of the Rush county schools, went to Brookville today to assist in the Franklin county school survey next week.

A school survey will be held during the week in nine counties and two of the larger cities of the state—Evansville and Fort Wayne—under the direction of the state school authorities. Fifty sets of school men including college, city and county school executives and instructors, will be engaged in taking the survey. Tests will be given the pupils and other means will be used in gathering facts about the schools, all of which will be compiled and used for a study of school problems.

Walter F. Dexter of Earlham college will be in charge of the group in which the local school men will work. It is regarded as a compliment to their standing as school executives to be selected to assist in the survey.

The General Education Board, located at New York City, planned the work for the Indiana commission, and the results obtained will be added to the records of other states. Standard tests will be used throughout the state and the nation and the results obtained will give an accurate estimate of the educational systems of the country, educators say.

URGES CHRISTIAN TO USE HIS HARP

W. H. Hemphill at First U. P. Church Applies Story of Children of Judah to Present Day

COMPARED WITH THEIR HARPS

Unused Talents of Modern Christians Should be in Use for Glory of God, He Says

"Every Christian should take down his harp from its place on the willows and learn once more to use it for the glory of God", declared the Rev. W. H. Hemphill, who is conducting evangelistic meetings at the First United Presbyterian church, Friday night, applying to present-day conditions the story of the children of Judah who, when Jerusalem was in ruins, hung their harps on the weeping willow trees and sat down by the riverside to weep over their departed glory.

The text of the sermon was from Psalm 137:2—"Upon the willows we hanged up our harps".

"Israel was in exile because of sin", said the evangelist. "Despite the faithful warnings of the prophets, rising early and speaking often in the name of the great Jehovah, they had forsaken the worship of God and served their idols under every green tree and upon every high mountain, as well as in the City of the Great King. The more God called them, the more they went from Him till there was no remedy. Then the Lord removed them from their own land and sent them into the seventy years of captivity till the land should have its Sabbath rest, which they had refused to give it. Now, if they sing at all it is this mournful dirge of mercies past and memories dear, and it may be a cherished hope of better days to come. But for the most part their harps hung tuneless and useless on the willows."

The speaker compared the unused talents of modern Christians to these harps.

"They are full of glorious possibilities", he continued, "but they are useless because unused. The captive Christian is in a sad condition. He can't sing because joy has gone from his heart. He can't speak a word for his Master for a life inconsistent with his profession, silences his tongue. He can't pray for God seems so far away. His harp is silent and his heart is sad while enemies sneer and satan is triumphant."

The speaker urged every Christian to take down his harp from its place on the willows and learn once more to use it for the glory of God.

"What music", he said, "What melody, what harmony, what possibilities of song lie hidden in your harp hung on the willows! But these Jews did not use their harps for satan. Sometimes the professed Christian does. Often the gift of song is used, not to sing God's praise, but to charm the ear and to lead men farther from God. Some use the talent for speech for selfish ends rather than for the good of humanity. Others use the talent for leadership to lead others into evil and not to

MINOR DETAILS REMAINING

Shantung Situation Looks Brighter on Conference Circles

(By United Press)

Washington, Jan. 14.—The Japanese agreed upon unconditional return of the leased territory, Kiao Chow, to China as soon as the Shantung question is settled, and an agreement thereon becomes operative, it was stated when the Shantung negotiations were concluded today.

At the same time Japanese agreed to surrender all documents left to the Chinese for administering the territory. Only minor details remain to be cleared up before negotiations over the Shantung railway are completed.

Both sides expect this resolution early next week. The leased territory, formerly in German hands, was seized from Germany by Japan during the war. The Shantung situation looks bright, it was stated on high conference circles.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS TO PRACTICE SUNDAY

Orchestra Preparing For First Public Appearance Probably Middle of March

MONEY TO BUY INSTRUMENTS

The Rushville Community Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Sarah I. McConnell, will meet for rehearsal Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the assembly room of the court house, having resumed practice last Sunday after being idle over the holidays.

The numbers for the initial concert have been chosen, which will include special features, two soloists, a violinist and soprano, and the date for the first public appearance will be decided upon soon, it being planned for about the middle of March.

The members last Sunday voted that the proceeds of the concert will go to buy different instruments of the expensive type, to be owned by the city, and for use by the organization, high school grade school and other civic organizations.

The weekly rehearsals will be held every Sunday at 1:30, it was decided, upon at the meeting last Sunday. The organization has been making great strides, and the people of this vicinity will soon be given the opportunity of hearing a concert that will be hard to excell any place.

ORGANIZED BAND OF AUTO THIEVES PROBED

Operations Cover Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, According to Confessions at Vincennes

"SMALL FRYS" REVEAL PLAN

(By United Press)

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 14.—An organized band of automobile thieves whose operations are said to have covered Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, is being investigated by state automobile police it was learned here today.

Confessions from two "small frys" of the gang, held here now, are said to show that customers of the band were promised any kind of manufactured automobile they desired within two days after the sale for $100. Jerry Stansfield, 28, local taxi man and his uncle, Robert DeJarnett, 42, a former policeman, are said to have made a clean breast to the local police and representatives of the secretary of state who administer the automobile law.

The confessions were said to indicate that stolen automobiles were sent to a city in southern Indiana for remodeling, painting and to cover over any tract of the identity of the machine. An automobile driven by Stansfield was stolen and in a few days he was seen driving a new one of a different manufacture.

HAYS WILL LEAVE HARDING CABINET

Postmaster General Announces He Will Resign to Become "Movie King" of United States

AFTER WHITE HOUSE CONFAB

Post Will be Offered to Senator S. New of Indiana—Date of Resignation Not Stated

(By United Press)

Washington, Jan. 14.—Postmaster General Will H. Hays today announced his intentions of resigning from President Harding's cabinet to become the "movie king" of the United States.

Official announcement of his intentions was made by Hays following a conference at the White House this morning in which President Harding reluctantly acquiesced to Postmaster General Hays leaving the cabinet.

Upon the highest authority, the United Press today learned that Senator Harry New, Indiana, very probably will be offered the post. Hays the first to drop out of the official family, will become head of the national association of the moving picture industry, representing all the largest film producers in the country.

The new office bears somewhat the same relation to the motion picture industry, now the fourth largest industry in the country, that Judge K. Landis does to organized baseball.

Following the conference at the White House, Harding and Hays both issued a statement, but no mention was made when the resignation would become effective.

Hays' statement said that "With the president's consent I have decided to undertake the work asked by the motion picture producers. No contract has yet been executed. I am aware, of course, that a satisfactory contract will be possible and one which will carry out the high proposals contemplated."

President Harding expressed regret at having Postmaster General Hays retire from the cabinet where he has already made so fine a record.

CROOKE DOCKS WITH THOUSAND DOUGHBOYS

How Capt. J. J. Reppa Brought Army Transport, First Command, Safely to Port, Revealed Today

PASSENGERS IN IGNORANCE

(By United Press)

New York, Jan. 14.—How Captain Joseph J. Reppa commanding his first vessel at sea, brought the army transport Crooke safely to port through a terrific storm after the vessel had sprung a serious leak, was told today when the Crooke loaded with 1,000 doughboys, 14 brides and 642 bodies of American soldiers, docked.

The Crooke docked today after being escorted up the bay by tugs, and boats carrying relatives of the soldier boys and officials. Highest praise of Captain Reppa who kept all knowledge of the danger from its passengers and from most of the crew, was given by Captain Bernard marine superintendent, in the U. S. Transport service.

Captain Reppa had never before been in command of a vessel. Four women besides the German brides of the American soldiers were on the passenger list and the Atlantic voyage had scarcely begun before they ran into the storm which increased in violence as the vessel journeyed westward. Tuesday morning Captain Reppa who had been taking soundings every 15 minutes as additional precaution, noticed there was 18 inches of water in No. 1 hold. At 10 a. m. the amount had been increased to 22 inches. The damage was repaired without anyone outside the rescue party being aware of the trouble.

Washington, Jan. 14—(For the week ending January 13, 1922.)

Grain—Market unsettled during week but somewhat better feeling existed at the close and prices show only a fractional net change for the week. Principal market factors were: rains in drouth sections of southwest; good milling demand; strong cash markets, and good sales wheat and corn for Russian Relief. Primary receipts running materially under those of a year ago. Australian crop privately estimated 120,000,000 bushels as compared with 152,000,000 bushels last year. Closing prices in cash Chicago market: No. 2 red winter wheat $1.18; No. 2 hard winter wheat $1.10; No. 2 mixed corn 49c; No. 2 yellow corn 49c; No. 3 white oats 34 1/2c. Average price to farmers in central Iowa for No. 2 mixed corn about 36c; to farmers in central North Dakota for No. 1 dark northern wheat $1.07 1/2; to farmers in central North Dakota for No. 1 dark northern wheat $1.07 1/2; to farmers in central Kansas for No. 2 hard winter wheat 92c. A FRIEND IN NEED
A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Los Angeles, Calif. — "I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed,' for you were a 'friend in need.'"
—Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byram St., Los Angeles, California.
Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be a "friend indeed" to you.

One of The Many

One of the many reasons for the sluggish condition of business in this country is the fact that there is little demand for our agricultural and manufactured products.

This slump in demand is purely the result of chaotic financial conditions abroad. They can not afford to buy our products at the present depreciated value of foreign currency.

If Europe succeeds in its efforts to organize a gigantic international finance corporation—something similar to our federal reserve system—it will gradually restore conditions to something approaching normalcy and open up the foreign markets to our surplus products.

There is a slow but gradual improvement in this country, but we can hardly expect anything of a radical nature until adequate market facilities are created for our products.

In the meantime we should consider ourselves fortunate that conditions with us are no worse.

Even as they are, America today is the favored land of the gods.

Tax: All Bonds

There is a strong and growing demand in this country for the abolition of the policy of issuing government and other bonds that are exempt from taxation.

Rich tax dodger in order to escape the excessive income tax are investing their wealth in these tax-free bonds instead of keeping it in the avenues of productive commerce.

This throws the burden of taxation upon poorer people, who are forced to pay heavier taxes in proportion to their means than are the men of great wealth.

If a curb is not placed upon the issuance of tax-free bonds the practice may ultimately grow into a national menace.

The ex-service man listens with a liberal degree of skepticism when Washington announces that readjusted compensation is to become an actuality by March. He remembers, in the bitterness of national neglect, that it required something more effective than promises to win the war.

You can generally tell when an office holder is nearing the end of his term. His smile won't come off.

However, hope deferred is not as bad as it might be. It leaves us something to anticipate.

"First Love" Coming Next

"First Love" in which Constance Binney will be seen next Monday and Tuesday at the Princess Theatre, is the story of a young working girl and her first beau. She fell in love with his eyes and pompadour and realized that he was a selfish cad only after months of blind devotion.

Thousands of girls in real life had had the same experience of giving their first love to an unworthy object, and they will find this picture of unusual interest, as pointing the way to happier experiences later on.

At the Mystic Today

A woman who knows how to dress gracefully and prettily can do so as well in Alaska as anywhere else. The leading actress in the Fox photoplay "The Kingdom of Love" states that she has lived in wild places where it was very difficult to get materials, but she always managed to have neat and dainty clothes, and at times some exceptionally pretty ones.

When one has been separated from the centres of life it does not necessarily mean that one has to look slovenly in the way of clothing. In the making of the clothing, in which she appears in this interesting photodrama, playing at the Mystic theatre today this actress used exactly the materials and the means of making them that the women of Alaska had in the early days. Nevertheless she was not careless in her dress.

Sometimes in front just under the heart, sometimes around under the left side, under the ribs behind the heart it's a sharp or acute pains; sometimes a dull heavy pain; leaving soreness. This is only one of a dozen different indications which PEPSINCO immediately relieves. Keep PEPSINCO handy and take it the next time.

WASHINGTON TEAM TO HAVE YANK MANAGER

Roger Peckinpugh Will Take Charge of Senators in Three Cornered Deal Made in League

DUGAN WILL GO TO BOSTON

New York, Jan. 14—A three cornered deal, as important as any recently completed in big league baseball is announced today whereby Roger Peckinpugh, former Yankee short stop will manage the Washington senators.

Under the terms of the transaction, Joe Dugan, temperamental but star short stop of the Athletics, goes to the Boston Red Sox. Griffith manager of the Senators got Dugan from Connie Mack by sending Bert Acosta and "Bing" Miller to Philadelphia. It is believed some cash was involved as well. The Senators have turned Dugan and Frank O'Rourke over to Boston in exchange for Peckinpugh.

Washington, by this shift becomes a formidable contender for the American league pennant, the senators management believe. Shanks Harris and Judge will with Peck at short, make up the Senators infield. Boston gains infield strength, if Dugan and O'Rourke fulfill expectations. Connie Mack, as usual in such a deal, gets cash.

SIGNS PITCHER

GREENSBURG HELD TO THREE POINTS

Rushville High School Almost Whitewashes "Lone Tree" City Five in Friday Night's Game

ALLOW FOUL AND FIELD GOAL

Margin Same as Maintained by Franklin When They Defeated Greensburg by 44-7 Score

A Double Hoodoo
Friday, the thirteenth proved a double hoodoo for Greensburg because Rushville's score was thirteen times as great as Greensburg's.

The Rushville high school basketball tossers chalked up their eighth straight victory Friday night, when they almost whitewashed the Greensburg high school team on the floor in that city, the final count being 39 to 3.

The game proved to be good practice and put the team on edge for their ninth victory when they will meet the Carthage high school here tonight. Both the second and first teams of these schools will play at the Annex auditorium tonight.

The second string team from the local school also romped over the Greensburg second team last night, 20 to 12. The locals led all through the game, except once in the last half, but they forged ahead and captured the contest.

MILROY HIGH IS DEFEATED

Loses to Columbus Friday Night at Columbus, 55 to 22

The Milroy high school lost Friday night to the fast Columbus high school team on the floor in that city the score being 55 to 22. The two teams battled on even terms for the first few minutes, but Milroy gradually weakened and the Columbus team continued their winning streak, having won every game played this season, except dropping a fast game to Franklin by a three point margin.

Milroy will invade Smithville, south of Bloomington tonight, and little is known of the Monroe county team. Next Friday night the Milroy team will tackle Shelbyville on the latter's floor.

BASKETBALL IS A HOME FLOOR GAME

Often Repeated Saying is That Home Team Always Has Advantage Over the Visitors

NEW FLOOR SIZE ADOPTED

Court Should be 90 by 50 Feet, But Teams in State Play on all Sizes—New Rules Apply

By HEZE CLARK
(Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 14.—With probably 60,000 men and boys playing basketball, in the state, the often repeated statement "basketball is a home floor" is important. It means that basketball is a game in which the home team has a big advantage gained by familiarity with the lights, the size of the floor, and the general surroundings.

The basketball rules state "The playing court shall be a rectangular surface free from obstructions and shall have a maximum dimensions of 90 feet in length, 50 feet wide and minimum dimensions of sixty feet in length 35 feet wide." By mutual agreement of the captains, the size of the court and the distance from obstructions may be changed. The outside lines of the playing space however are supposed to be three feet from any fixed obstructions.

Basketball under these rules can be played and is played on all size floors. However, the tendency during the last few years is to erect good basketball courts. Purdue took a lead in this many years ago when that university erected a gymnasium with a full-sized playing space, 90 by 50 in size. Indiana University with its wonderful gymnasium has a full sized floor with plenty of room to seat a crowd of 5,000 basketball fans. A recent game between Bloomington and Bedford high schools attracted such a crowd that the advance seat sale caused the game to be played in the university gymnasium instead of the smaller high school. Every seat and all standing room was taken.

DePauw University at Greencastle started playing basketball years ago in a downtown hall where the playing space was hardly large enough for a grade school team. Today DePauw has one of the largest and best basketball floors in the country. A good floor means a good team. Wabash college in the old days played basketball and developed championship teams in the old Y. M. C. A. gym in what is now the Crawfordville traction station. At one end of the gym was a wall and before the rule forbidding running up a wall was put in the rule book, Wabash players could run by that wall like going up a stairway and they always scored.

HARD GAME LOST TO SHELBYVILLE

Without Services of Martin, Odd Fellows Fall Before Strong Offensive, 27 to 22

TIE SCORE AT EIGHT POINTS

Shaw Outshines All Other Players in Game, Caging Six Field Goals During Game

The Odd Fellows lost a fast and hard fought game Friday night on the Shelbyville floor, when the home team won out, 27 to 22. The Odd Fellows played without the services of Martin, which is believed to have accounted for their defeat, as he has been going at a fast clip in recent games.

The two teams battled on even terms during the first half and the score at one period was tied at 8 points, but before the end of the first half, the Shelbyville team was leading 19 to 12.

The locals tried hard to overcome the five point lead, but it seemed to be a jinx, and the game ended with Rushville trailing at the five point mark.

Shaw outshined all players on the floor in basket shooting, caging six field goals, while Richeson was held to four goals.

A curtain raiser was played between the Shelby scouts and the Methodist church team of Rushville, the final score being 28 to 8 in favor of the Shelbyville team.

The line-up and summary:

AUCTION BRIDGE — No. 9 "Stop, Look, and Listen"

More hands are wrecked by blocking partner's suit, and then unblocking opponent's suit, than most any other thoughtless, headless plays. In a no-trumper, your partner will never open with a high card unless holding a very long or strong suit.

Having become familiar with the table of leads against a no-trump make, the player will see it is best not to be left with a single high card in his partner's suit, and will unblock as follows:

Unblocking at No-Trump

When Partner Leads And You Hold Play
Ace King, Queen, and one Queen
Ace King and one King
Ace Queen, Jack and one Jack
King Ace and one Ace
King Queen, Jack and one Jack
Queen King and one King
Jack King, Queen and one Queen

Holding four or more cards of your partner's suit, hold up the lowest card until the last round. For example, holding Jack, nine, five, and three, on partner's lead of King, Ace, pay five on King and nine on Ace. Holding up three, your partner can read you with four of the suit, and you cannot block length of suit in his hand.

In other words, get rid of the command of your partner's suit, but keep the command of the opponent's suit.

Blocking the dummy, when declarer is playing a no-trump and dummy holds a long suit without re-entry, an adversary, if possible, should block it and prevent the long cards from making by holding the winning card until declarer has played what is necessarily his last card of the suit. Great care should be taken not to miss this opportunity when it occurs. In other words, sew up the suit in the hand, thereby blocking. Avoid opening new suits. In other words, do not change suit without good reason. When the honors of a suit are evenly divided, opening it is practically sure to cost a trick, and starting of any suit which is not headed by both Ace and King, or by a three-card sequence, is almost invariably disadvantageous.

A player should remember that the lead of his partner has been made with some object, and should therefore be returned except when the holding of dummy or some other development renders such action plainly inadvisable.

"Shifting suits is about as advantageous as swapping horses while crossing a stream," and the advice to return the partner's suit rather than risk a new one applies with equal force whether a no-trump or suit declaration is being played, but does not refer to the situation in which the partner evidently desires that the suit he has declared be led through strength up to him.

Always play against dummy, leading through his strength. That is, lead the suit he is strong in when dummy is your left-hand adversary, thereby putting his high cards at the mercy of your partner, and to his weakness when he is your right-hand adversary.

Questions and Answers

Q. What is called the Thirty-third Degree of Auction?
A. Playing to the Score.

Q. Why are Diamonds and Clubs declared with the same strength?

A. Both declarations require the same number of tricks to make game, (five tricks over the book of six), and both declarations convey the same information to partner—that of helpful hands toward better or major makes in Partner's hand.

Q. Why is it advisable to bid the hand's full worth on first round?

A. To prevent informative bids by opponents, enabling them to combine strength of their hands.

Now Wabash college has a big gymnasium. In the center of this is a full-sized basketball floor. Wabash has always been one of the strongest colleges in basketball and the new gym had helped.

Notre Dame plays great indoor game on a dirt floor. It takes more insurance to play the game on a dirt floor than on a wood floor. However, there is a different action to the ball in a dribble on a wood floor than a dirt floor and when Notre Dame gets off its own playing space that team is handicapped.
